

GIT COMMANDS

1. git status --> to check the status
2. git init --> to initialize a folder with .git
3. git add -a --> to add all the files to the staging area
4. git add . --> to add all the files to the staging area
5. git commit -m"<|Anything|>" --> creates a commit
6. git commit -a -m"<|Anything|>" --> creates a commit by skipping the staging area
7. git add <|File Name|> --> add <|file name|> only to staging area
8. rm -f .git --> deletes the .git folder
9. git rm <|file name|> --> deletes the <|file name|>
10. git mv <|file name|> <|new file name|> --> renames <|file name|>
11. git rm --cached <|file name|> --> untracks <|file name|>
12. git clone<|file link|> --> downloads <|file|> from internet
13. pwd --> present working directory
14. ls --> list contents
15. cd --> change directory
16. touch<|file name|> --> creates an empty <|file name|>
17. touch .gitignore --> creates .gitignore (.gitignore is used to ignore to files to be tracked)
18. git diff --> compares working directory with staging area
19. git diff --staged --> compares last commit with present working directory
20. git log --> to see your commits
21. git log --p --> to see your commits along with items removed
22. git log --<|number|> --> to see last <|number|> commits
23. git log --stat --> shows in short what are in last commit
24. git log --pretty=oneline --> to see your commits in one line
25. git log --pretty=short --> to see commits in short
26. git log --pretty=full --> to see more information on commits (press enter to go further and q to quit)
27. git log --pretty=format: <|git link|> --> usage see docs
28. git log --since=<|number|> days --> show last <|number|> days commits
29. git log --since=<|number|> weeks --> show last <|number|> weeks commits
30. git log --since=<|number|> months --> show last <|number|> months commits
31. git log --since=<|number|> years --> show last <|number|> years commits
32. git commit --amend --> allows to edit commits
33. git restore --staged <|file name|> --> unstages the file
34. git checkout --<|file name|> --> Matches <|file name|> with last commit
35. git checkout --f --> matches your all modified files with last commit
36. git revert <|token|> --> reverts to <|token|> commit
37. git remote --> checks the remote
38. git remote add origin <|link|> --> allows you to push your repository to remote
39. git remote -v --> shows two links to push and pull
40. git push -u origin master --> pushes your repository to remote
41. git config --global alais.<|anything|> <|git command|> --> shortens your command
42. git checkout -b <|anything|> --> creates new <|anything|> branch
43. git checkout master --> switches to master branch
44. git checkout <|branch name|> --> switches to <|branch name|>
45. git branch --> displays all the branches
46. git merge <|branch name|> --> merges <|branch name|> with master branch
47. git branch -v --> to see your commit hash and commit message along with branches
48. git branch --merged --> shows all merged branches
49. git branch --no merged --> shows not already merged branches

GIT COMMANDS

- 50. git branch -d <|branch name|> --> deletes the <|branch name|>
- 51. git push origin <|branch name|> --> pushes <|branch name|> to the remote named origin
- 52. git push origin: <|new branch name|> --> changes the <|branch name|> in the remote
- 53. git push -d origin <|branch name|> --> deletes the <|branch name|> from the remote